

SEX OR KIDNAPPING OFFENDER INFORMATION BULLETIN LEVEL 3 NOTIFICATION OF RELEASE

SPECIAL ASSAULT UNIT SEX AND KIDNAPPING OFFENDER REGISTRATION DETAIL

Bulletin # : 03-162

Census distribution: 32-35, 47-49, 58-60

PREPARED BY DET. ROBERT A. SHILLING

DATE: 10/18/03

The Seattle Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550, the Washington State Supreme Court decision in State v. Ward, and the US Supreme Court decision in Connecticut Dept. of Public Safety v. Doe (2003) which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex or kidnapping offenders release when the release of information will enhance public safety and protection.

The individual who appears on this notification has been convicted of a sex or kidnapping offense that requires registration with the sheriff's office in the county of their residence. Further, their previous criminal history places them in a classification level, which reflects the potential to re-offend.

This sex or kidnapping offender has served the sentence imposed on him by the courts and has advised the King County Department of Public Safety that he will be living in the location below. HE IS NOT WANTED BY THE POLICE AT THIS TIME. THIS NOTIFICATION IS NOT INTENDED TO INCREASE FEAR; RATHER, IT IS OUR BELIEF THAT AN INFORMED PUBLIC IS A SAFER PUBLIC.

The Seattle Police Department has no legal authority to direct where a sex or kidnapping offender may or may not live. Unless court ordered restrictions exist, this offender is constitutionally free to live wherever he chooses.

Sex and kidnapping offenders have always lived in our communities; but it wasn't until passage of the Community Protection Act of 1990 (which mandates sex and kidnapping offender registration) that law enforcement even knew where they were living. In many cases, law enforcement is now able to share that information with you. Citizen abuse of this information to threaten, intimidate or harass registered sex or kidnapping offenders will not be tolerated. Further, such abuse could potentially end law enforcement's ability to do community notifications. We believe the only person who wins if community notification ends is the sex or kidnapping offender, since they derive their power through secrecy.

Elliott, Olin L. I M 11/28/63
Age: 39

5'10", 157 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes.
Scar on his face. Mole on his nose.

Olin Elliott was released from prison on 9/24/2001, after completing his sentence for two counts of Extortion in the Second Degree and one count of Child Molestation in the Third Degree. The victim in the Child Molestation case was a 14-year-old female who was a stranger to Elliott. Elliott stopped the girl as she was walking in downtown Seattle. He stated that he was a photographer and asked the girl if she wanted to be a model. Elliott then grabbed the girl's hand and placed it on his crotch.

Elliott has an extensive criminal history with convictions in Washington, Florida, Arizona, and South Carolina. Elliott's pattern typically involves him making random phone calls threatening to mutilate, torture, and rape a young child he claims to have abducted, unless the recipient of the call disrobes and describes specific sex acts to his satisfaction, or agrees to sexual favors in exchange for ensuring the child's safety.

Elliott very graphically describes the torture and mayhem he will do to the child unless the recipient of his call complies. In the past he has called rape centers, crisis intervention centers, lingerie shops and private residences. In one case, Elliott called a museum in Arizona to report that a bomb had been planted on the grounds. The recipient of this call was told to disrobe before he would reveal the exact location of the bomb. Similar calls were made to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Elliott has also previously arranged for women to come to motels and trade themselves for children he was allegedly (OVER) holding hostage there.
